1. Please provide a description of the issue or situation you would like to address at this moment.
  2. Please write down two descriptive words that indicate what is going on. Examples are: exhaustion and burden; sad and lonely; restless and uncertainty; or fear and gloom, just to name a few.
  3. Approximately how long has this issue been going on.
  4. Is this an ongoing or life issue and/or has it worsened recently?
  5. What is the severity of the issue on a scale of 1-10.
  6. Describe your general personality on a day-to-day basis, not necessarily when you are in the middle of the issue that is of concern.
  7. What is your reaction when you are in the midst of the situation.
  8. Were there household changes, or other life changes, that took place before or during the time the challenge arose. These changes could have been something you went through directly, or something that happened to someone in your life that affected you.
  9. Is there anything else that might be useful to know about?
